

Vendor Policies for Museum Events

The following are policies for Caterers and other Vendors (“Vendors”) who work at the Museum of Russian Icons (“Museum”) during a private or Museum-sponsored event. A signed copy of this document must be received by Museum before approval to work at Museum will be given. A signature on the final page of this document constitutes acknowledgement that the Vendor has read the full document and agrees to abide by the policies herein.

Please direct questions regarding this document or vendor policies to the Media & Rentals Coordinator:
Anna Farwell, afarwell@museumofrussianicons.org, (978) 598-5000 x118.

General Information

- The Vendor must understand that the Museum’s primary duty is to provide distinct services to our visitors during the hours we are open to the public. Any activity which interferes with this service obligation will not be permitted.
- The Vendor must speak with the Rentals Coordinator in advance of the scheduled rental event to discuss setup and deliveries. If the Vendor is not familiar with the Museum’s function rooms, we encourage you to schedule a visit in advance of the event.
- The role of Museum staff is to secure the safety of the building and the collection, and to facilitate guests’ experience of the museum. Museum staff will coordinate with Vendors on premises to ensure smooth flow of the event and the enjoyment of guests.

Restrictions and Prohibitions

The following activities are strictly prohibited by any person(s) involved in a function at the Museum:

- smoking in any part of the building, directly in front of the building, or on the roof terrace;
- lighted candles or other open flame devices, with the exception of sterno burners for warming pans;
- the use of confetti, bubbles, helium-filled balloons, butane, or propane;
- touching, moving, or removing any Museum property without the explicit permission of staff;
- blocking doors, fire exits, fire extinguishers, fire alarms or emergency exits;
- propping open any windows or exterior doors beyond a reasonable period required to carry equipment or food into or out of the building;
- attaching anything to walls, ceilings or fixtures without consent from the Rentals Coordinator;
- red wine or other beverages which could cause staining;
- flash photography or filming in the galleries.

Set-Up and Clean-Up

- Museum staff will set up tables, chairs, A/V equipment, and other Museum-owned equipment. The Client and Vendor(s) are responsible for the remainder of the setup, under the supervision of the Rentals Coordinator.
- Vendors may use the kitchen on the lower level for food preparation and other staging. Food preparation in other parts of the building must be approved by the Rentals Coordinator.
- Museum staff will break down all tables, chairs, and other equipment provided by Museum. All other clean-up is the responsibility of the Vendor and/or Client. All areas utilized must be returned to their original condition.
- Trash must be bagged by the Caterer and removed from the premises. Use of Museum's outdoor trash receptacle is not permitted.
- The Vendor must do a walk-through with the Rentals Coordinator prior to departing the building.
- All equipment and supplies must be removed at the end of the event, unless prior arrangement for later pick-up is made with the Rentals Coordinator.
- Museum will not be held responsible for items belonging to a Vendor or its employees that are left in the building after the event.

Alcohol

- The Museum must be informed in advance if alcohol is to be served at an event.
- If alcohol will be served by the Caterer, the Caterer must have a current liquor license and have full liquor liability insurance.
 - "Museum of Russian Icons" must be listed as an additional insured on the policy, and a copy of the policy and the liquor license must be sent to the Museum prior to the event. (This is not necessary if the Caterer has previously provided an up-to-date copy of the license and policy to the Museum.)
- Alcohol consumption is not permitted outside the building.
- The serving of alcohol must end 30 minutes prior to the end of the event.
- The Caterer and Client are responsible for monitoring the alcohol consumption of guests and for limiting access to alcohol if necessary. The Rentals Coordinator can also require that a guest's alcohol access be limited if his/her behavior has become unruly.

Additional Information

- The HVAC system in Museum is calibrated very precisely to protect the artwork. The system maintains a temperature of 70° F (with fluctuations from 65-75°), and a humidity level of 50%. The settings are controlled off-site, and Museum staff does not have the ability to adjust them.
- The Russian Tea Room ("Tea Room") is a retail establishment of Museum, and no beverages or food products from the Tea Room may be taken or consumed by catering staff unless the specified price is paid to Museum. Furthermore, sales of Tea Room merchandise during an event will only occur by permission of the Rentals Coordinator. The Vendor will be held financially responsible to Museum for any Tea Room merchandise consumed by or removed from Museum by catering staff.
- If additional cleaning of the facility is necessary after an event due to unsatisfactory cleanup by the catering staff, then the fee for the cleaning service will be charged to the Vendor and will be due and payable upon receipt.
